

Page 88 Style Test

- 1. Ten of the 200 employees will lose their jobs if the five-percent cut is made.
- 2. Fifty-six-year-old Allan Noh of 12-54 East 95th Street is the winner.
- 3. The head of the judging committee...Veronica Vasquez...says the vote was 16-to-12 for the motion.
- 4. Howard Jackson drove in the winning run.
- 5. The Ford Foundation has awarded Midcity University a one -million-dollar grant for biotechnology research.
- 6. Mayor Ronald Moore says the sales tax increase will bring in nearly six-million-dollars
- 7. Supervisor Maria Sanchez says there's a chance the new busses will not be ready by the end of next month.
- 8. Fort Madison has its first female military police officer. She is Sergeant April Stevens.
- 9. Forty-seven-year-old attorney...Terence Shippen of 28-92 Boston Avenue... is a member of the N-Double-A-C-P.
- 10. Fire Captain Linda Smith estimates the hotel's damage at 400-thousand-dollars.

###