

Rewriting to Broadcast Style
Page 89 (Comm 240 book)

1. The new plant will employ 1,800 people, Mayor Moore promised

Rewrite: Mayor Moore says the new plant will employ 18-hundred people.

2. The fire was caused by a short circuit, Fire Capt. Robt. C. Tinker proclaimed.

Rewrite: Fire Captain Robert Tinker says he suspects a short circuit caused the fire.

3. Over seventy percent of American adults fail to get enough exercise, according to researchers at Harvard University.

Rewrite: Harvard researchers say more than 70-percent of American adults don't exercise enough.

4. The cost of the new museum is projected to be $84,990,750 by Gov. Sorenson.

Rewrite: Governor Sorenson estimates the new museum will cost around 85-million-dollars.

5. The NCAA asked the FBI to help in the investigation.

Rewrite: The N-C-A-A has asked the F-B-I to help in the investigation.

6. Jack D. Shelly, a professor of journalism at Midcity University, has been named as a special consultant to the FCC.

Rewrite: The Federal Communications Commission has named Midcity University journalism professor Jack Shelley a special consultant.

P. 89 Rewrites (p. 2)

7. The two women got away with $151,250, Ellen F. Warner, president of Midcity National Bank, announced.

Rewrite: Midcity National Bank President Ellen Warner says the two women got away with more than 150-thousand-dollars.

8. Lt. Eric B. Overton will be the speaker at the ROTC luncheon today.

Rewrite: Lieutenant Eric Overton will speak the R-O-T-C luncheon today.

9. Doris E. Williams, 72, 1930 Virginia Rd., was named “Grandma of the Year” today by the Midcity Seniors Club.

Rewrite: Grandma of the Year. That’s the honor that the Midcity Seniors Club has given to 72-year-old Doris Williams of 19-30 Virginia Road.

10. Juan R. Lopez, pres. Of Midcity Community College, announced today that he will retire from the college on June 21.

Rewrite: Midcity Community College President Juan Lopez announced today that he will retire from the college on June 21st.

###