Dr. Andrew Lewis
Director of Professional Development in Education
College of Charleston
66 George Street
Charleston SC 29424

Dear Dr. Lewis:

I have been requested and am very pleased to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of Christy Berry to gain full status as a faculty member for the College of Charleston. I highly recommend Ms. Berry with no reservation whatsoever for your serious consideration.

I have known Ms. Berry for almost twenty years as her High School Principal, Superintendent and now employer. Her previous work experience for six years was with the state public library system where she developed a love and superb ability to teach technology skills. Because of her great success with such, we hired Ms. Berry as our district wide technology coach with main duties of staff development and support for technology use by teachers in the classroom.

Over the past two years she has taught several summer courses, directed many staff training sessions and leads a monthly staff development program all geared to technology skill understanding and improvement for staff. She has received rave reviews and is in constant demand inside and outside of our school district.

Ms. Berry is an outstanding teacher of technology for your consideration of full status as a faculty member. She would be a tremendous asset to your program in any regard. We would be willing to cooperatively work with the College of Charleston in any endeavor in which she is involved.

Sincerely,

John M. Kirby, Ed. D.
Superintendent
