
Clinical Practice Intern

School

Grade/Subject

Date

	Not Met	Met
COMPETENT LEVEL DISPOSITIONS
• Believes that all students can learn
Makes knowledge accessible to all students
Advocates for all students
Creates responsive and supportive classroom environments that nourish and promote each student's learning and development
• Values and respects individual differences
Demonstrates equity in daily interactions
Actively seeks information about the beliefs, values, traditions, social and academic abilities of individuals
Uses multiple forms of instruction and assessment
• Commits to inquiry, reflection, and self assessment
Adopts problem solving and experimental orientation
Thinks systematically about the relationships between theory and practice
Teaches from an evolving personal understanding of self, philosophy and practice
• Exhibits sensitivity to community and cultural contexts
Uses information about the beliefs, values, traditions of self and others within family, community and cultural contexts as a foundation for teaching

	Not Met	Met
COMPETENT LEVEL DISPOSITIONS
• Values positive human interactions
Promotes cooperation and respect in and out of the classroom
Communicates in ways that demonstrate respect for the feelings, ideas and contributions of others
Encourages open dialogue in the classroom
Responds non-judgmentally
Demonstrates qualities of warmth, empathy and humor with children/youth and caregivers
• Exhibits intellectual curiosity, enthusiasm about learning, and willingness to learn new ideas
Stays current in the evolving nature of the profession
Engages in discussions about ideas
Brings a sense of wonder to work
Plans and engages in research based practice
Seeks out differing points of view
• Values collaborative and cooperative work
Establishes and fosters respectful productive relationships with professionals, agencies, community members, and caregivers while maintaining confidentiality
• Demonstrates responsible and ethical practice
Upholds the laws and ethical codes governing the profession
Meets professional responsibilities in a timely and positive manner

COLLEGE SUPERVISOR'S SIGNATURE

DATE