

Interdisciplinary Minor in Archaeology

Application for New Elective Course

Contact Name _____

Department/Program _____

Phone _____ Email _____

Course Number: _____

Course Name: _____

Within a brief statement attached to this cover sheet, please address the following:

RATIONALE FOR INCLUSION

How does the proposed course contribute towards the goals of the minor program?
What are the pedagogical goals of the course, and how will these be met?

ARCHAEOLOGICAL COMPONENT

According to the requirements of the College for including courses in an interdisciplinary minor, 1/3 of a course needs to directly relate to the goals of the minor. How does the proposed course address this requirement?

Attach to this coversheet the prepared statement, syllabus, and any other relevant course materials to:

Jim Newhard, Program Director
Program in Classics
308B Randolph Hall

- Proposals can be sent via interdepartmental mail or emailed (newhardj@cofc.edu).
- Proposals for new courses are due to the Program Director 1 WEEK prior to the meeting of the Steering Committee.
- Instructors are encouraged to discuss the proposed course with the Program Director, and to attend the meeting of the Steering Committee.
- Any questions should be addressed to the Program Director (953-5485; newhardj@cofc.edu).