

February 28, 2005

Alternative Spring Break Silent Auction

The Alternative Spring Breakers are all set to get involved in communities through service. The Dominican Republic participants are having a SILENT AUCTION Tuesday & Wednesday, March 1, 2, from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Cougar Mall. Come bid on the items and help support their service and outreach efforts!

ONGOING OPPORTUNITIES!

Charleston Habitat for Humanity

Need motivated and hard working volunteers to assist in constructing new homes for families in the Charleston area.

The Pink House

Are you tech savvy? The Pink House needs help repairing, upgrading, and networking their computer systems.

American Cancer Society's Hope Lodge

Hope Lodge is a home away from home for cancer patients undergoing treatment at MUSC. Volunteers are needed to help with lodge upkeep and administrative tasks.

Peace Corps

Life is calling. How far will you go?

Having trouble finding that job? Not ready for Graduate School? The Peace Corps has an alternative and invites you to learn more about its organization and consider joining their family of volunteers around the world by visiting www.peacecorps.gov.*

UPCOMING OPPORTUNITY!

Lowcountry Cajun Festival

April 3, 2005

Volunteers needed to help with children's activities, beverages, souvenirs, ticket sales and parking.

Anyone is welcome to volunteer, participate and have a good time!

Hours Needed: 10am- 6:30pm

Golf Marathon to benefit Eagle Harbor

May 6, 2005

Volunteers needed throughout the day to help with registration, food and general operations!

Hours Needed: all day

Contact the CHEC Center if you're interested!

KEEP IN TOUCH!!

E-mail: chec@cofc.edu

Phone: 953-5838

If you would like to be removed from this email list, then please contact us to let us know.