Your attendance at either: both the initial and the midterm Internship Advisory Sessions OR to the Online Advisory Session (see below) and at least 1 of the in-person sessions is mandatory.

Several options will be provided for both in-person sessions. If you cannot attend any of the various options provided, it will be incumbent upon you to participate in the online session in place of one of the in-person sessions. Lack of attendance at either session will have a direct effect on your final grade – see HTMT 444 Course Evaluation Rubric.

➢ Once signed up (access and the app are free), you should be given access to the internship advisory session I’ve recorded. VoiceThread is a unique, interactive tool that will allow you to review the session material at your own pace and comment either via text, audio or video commentary. I think you’ll find it very engaging and hopefully the session will be informative as you begin the internship course assignments.

- You are required to ask at least one question – or at the very least leave a comment (though I would be very surprised if you don’t have even one question!) – in order to attain the 5 points credit for attending the advisory session. You question will be tagged with your info so I can award credit.

Early Termination or Dismissal

Also, you should be aware that termination of your internship by the host for any reason may result in failure of this course. Failure of this course may also affect your ability to graduate. If you are experiencing any issues or have any concerns about your internship experience or your position with the host organization, you must notify the instructor immediately. Each situation will be assessed independently and the final decision will be made after consultation with the department chair. Please be aware that any termination for cause without notification or engagement of the instructor will be grounds for failure.

Please contact your instructor if you have any questions or concerns about this or any other policy.

<td>1. Describe the value of their internship experience and how it will facilitate their career aspirations</td>
<td>Students will develop and gain consent from employers regarding the scope and type of internship experience provided. Daily journals will ensure the student is regularly reflecting on the experience. Finally via the Midterm &amp; Final Report students will be responsible for reporting on the experience, their impressions, lessons learned and how it applies to them and their career path. All reports are expected to be of the highest quality and should be functional as an element of a professional portfolio.</td>

<tr>
<td>2. Provide an example of a major project, responsibility or learning experience, which improved or added value to the organization as a direct result of the internship experience.</td>
<td>Students are asked to provide an example of their work or an executive portfolio of contributions as a part of the final report assignment. Via the Learning contact, daily journals and midterm &amp; final reports the student will be required to reflect on the learning experiences they’ve encountered during their internship. This information will be synopsized as a part of the final report as well. This assignment should fit neatly into their midterm and/or final report as a part of their overall reflection on the internship experience. Students will have to incorporate their internship role and responsibilities into an updated resume as a portion of the final report.</td>

Via the daily journals and the midterm and final reports the students will be required to reflect on lessons learned and impressions of the workplace they are experiencing and how this affects their expectations and desires for their career and eventual workplace environment.</td>

The internship experience provides experiential, hands-on learning experiences as well as interaction with the local community and industry. It supports the student’s academic pursuits by reinforcing and/or providing direct insight into professional environments and job responsibilities aligned with their chosen major and career aspirations. Students are exposed to an invaluable aspect of work life: the actual practice or professional exposure in the field they are pursuing through their academic experience.

The internship builds community and professional ties, exposes students to potential employers and peers, and provides a unique opportunity to see a role before they graduate into it. The skills and knowledge gained by the student during their time at the College should be fully utilized, applied and/or enhanced by the internship experience. Ideally, these experiences prepare students to be ‘job ready’ as they graduate and often provide actual opportunities for employment prior to or at graduation, which is consistent with the HTMT Department and Business School mission statements.

Academic Integrity: The College of Charleston’s Honor Code is in effect in this course. If you are unclear about what constitutes cheating, please see the Instructor.

College of Charleston Honor Code and Academic Integrity
Lying, cheating, attempted cheating, and plagiarism are violations of our Honor Code that, when identified, are investigated. Each incident will be examined to determine the degree of deception involved. Incidents where the instructor determines the student’s actions are related more to a misunderstanding will handled by the instructor. A written intervention designed to help prevent the student from repeating the error will be given to the student. The intervention, submitted by form and signed both by the instructor and the student, will be forwarded to the Dean of Students and placed in the student’s file.

Cases of suspected academic dishonesty will be reported directly by the instructor and/or others having knowledge of the incident to the Dean of Students. A student found responsible by the Honor Board for academic dishonesty will receive a XF in the course, indicating failure of the course due to academic dishonesty. This grade will appear on the student’s transcript for two years after which the student may petition for the X to be expunged. The student may also be

Students should be aware that unauthorized collaboration - working together without permission - is a form of cheating. Unless the instructor specifies that students can work together on an assignment, quiz and/or test, no collaboration during the completion of the assignment is permitted. Other forms of cheating include possessing or using an unauthorized study aid (which could include accessing information via a cell phone or computer), copying from others' exams, fabricating data, and giving unauthorized assistance.

Research conducted and/or papers written for other classes cannot be used in whole or in part for any assignment in this class without obtaining prior permission from the instructor.

Students can find the complete Honor Code and all related processes in the Student Handbook at http://studentaffairs.cofc.edu/honor-system/studenthandbook/index.php

Semester Assignments:

Work Journal (25%)

Due Date: Daily/Weekly, to be reviewed periodically at the instructor’s discretion

1. Complete a regular (Daily/Weekly – based on the quality of the information) Work Journal entry for each day/week you work
   - Please keep up with these on a regular basis, do not attempt to fill out multiple entries all at once
   - Bi-weekly updates are suggested, weekly entries constitute minimal effort, anything less will loose points
   - I will be able to track your progress and will be comparing entries to ensure there is no cut & paste fulfillment – please be diligent in keeping up with these assignments
   - The regular work journal entries are a key element of your foundation for this course – do not neglect this part of your responsibilities as it will inevitably affect the remainder of your work

2. Save the file using the DATE FIRST and your last name (optional) as the document title (i.e. 12.1.15 or Dec.1.2015 or 12.01.2015.Clement)

3. Place the entry into the shared Google Drive folder – please ensure you share this folder with the instructor and that you’ve assigned comment or edit rights.

Students will continually maintain a regular work journal of their experiences during the internship. The work journal should provide insight on the overall internship experience and may include: daily duties, skills tested or acquired, situations which arose and how they handled them, observations or impressions made or gathered via their internship work experience.

Journal entries do not need to include all of these elements, all of the time. But you should consider these categories as strong starting points through which you can mold your thoughts and capture viable information from the internship experience. In other words, don’t strictly adhere to these categories – use this template as an outline to begin the thought process. Utilize these journal entries to capture any- and everything that you might want to include or reference in a semester report.

Your journal entries are private to you. While I will be periodically reviewing them for completion and consistency, they are the primary vehicle for the intern to capture the experiences and lessons being learned for later inclusion in course reports. It is vital that you collect any pertinent details as well as dates and specific milestones of your internship experience.

Regular journals should be completed using the template below (Daily Journal Template also provided via the course Google Drive folder):
Provide responses to the Critical Learning Log on a Weekly basis, no exceptions.

Kolb (1984) instructs us that there is no guarantee that an experience necessarily will be a learning experience. In order for that to happen, there needs to be a framework within which one can process the experience. One way of doing that is to reflect upon your week and think about those moments of learning that occurred, specifically those that made a difference in your experience. Remember to be focused and concise in thinking about what and how you are learning.

- What was the focus of your internship work this past week?
  - What was the focus of supervision and what was your role in it?
  - What insight did you develop about yourself in your role as an intern?

- What was the most critical moment of learning during the past week?
  - Why is it important to you?
  - How does it affect you? Your internship?
  - How might it affect your work in the future?

- What will be the focus of your work this coming week?

You will then conduct a skills assessment and create a plan for how to achieve the skills and experiences necessary to be the ideal candidate for the chosen opportunity. The idea is to map how you get from you, the intern/student, to you, the ideal candidate for your dream job. The job you select should not be something immediately achievable upon graduation, attempt to look forward at where you hope to be in 5-10 years.

Go online and find a job posting for an ideal position or ‘dream job’ if there is not one in your host organization. For hospitality positions a good site is www.Hcareers.com. The point of this assignment is to develop a plan in relation to meeting your career goals. The job description or posting must be provided as an appendix to this assignment.

For this assignment you must:

1. Develop a short term career strategy (1 – 6 month(s) $\rightarrow$ 1 – 5 year(s) $\rightarrow$ 5+ years out – be realistic). This strategy will include:
   - Create a Career Path Map which shows the typical position arc to get to your dream position…
     - E.g. Front Desk $\rightarrow$ Front Desk Manager $\rightarrow$ Operations Manager
     - Include time estimates to achieve and hold each position
     - Identify 3 companies or 3 types of organizations who could provide either an
       1. internship opportunity and/or
       2. entry level work experience
     - Identify any Professional Organizations that you could join
     - Describe any Professional Certifications or additional Educational Requirements that would assist you in getting to your dream position
     - Describe any Related Experience that might facilitate or accelerate growth or that might be required for due consideration
   - Synopsizes your Career Path Map by detailing out the most critical aspects of this path. Describe the impact this path has on your aspirations and any pertinent takeaways or realizations you’ve developed as a result of this assignment

2. Develop a personal SWOT Analysis of yourself against the position you’ve identified
   - Utilize a traditional S.W.O.T. graphic to analyze yourself and your experiences upon graduation vs. the ideal candidate and job description/requirements for the position you’ve selected.
   - In a brief synopsis of your SWOT analysis, address these key points:
     - What are your current personal strengths in relation to achieving your longer term career goals?
       1. What are you currently doing to enhance these skills?
     - What are your current personal weaknesses in relation to achieving your longer term career goals?
       1. What are you currently doing to address these weaknesses?
     - Who can help you achieve your career goals?
       1. What have you done or could do to foster those relationships?
       2. What have you done or could do to develop a more comprehensive network?
     - What market forces could prevent you from achieving your career goals?
       1. What secondary skills have you developed in case your first career path is blocked?
